

Ambassadors of Multicultural Affairs

• Office of Multicultural Affairs •

Ambassadors of Multicultural Affairs (AMA) are dedicated to the preservation, promotion and encouragement of inclusion, diversity and multiculturalism in the collegiate atmosphere, while encouraging its members to give humble service and respect to the campus community. We assist with any events that the Office of Multicultural Affairs when possible. In addition, we strive to extend our networks and support other organizations on campus through attendance and/or co-sponsorships. Our job is to facilitate the acceptance of all opinions and bring about positive, constructive and uplifting changes towards the better understanding at Florida State University.

Why Ambassadors for Multicultural Affairs?

- Student leaders trained in diversity
- Aide the Office of Multicultural Affairs in organizing task forces and programs
- Provide students with community partnerships with staff, faculty, and administrators

What to expect as an Ambassadors for Multicultural Affairs

- Training by the Best
  - Ambassadors will be trained by experts in the area of diversity
- Research Experience
  - Ambassadors will engage with multitude of student organizations and present findings on group dynamics
- Networking
  - Ambassadors are involved in all aspects of the community. Past Ambassadors have been leaders in Student Government, Greek life, and various student organizations
- Public Speaking
  - Ambassadors will have plenty of opportunities to polish their public speaking skills

Are you interested in becoming an Ambassador for Multicultural Affairs? If so, complete the application and drop it off at the Office of Multicultural Affairs, A211 Oglesby Union or submit it via email to PresidentAMA@yahoo.com Thank you!

Please completely feel out the entire application. Thank you!

